VOL. IV.

DAYTON, O., THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1867.

NO. 242.

THE BASIS OF REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT.

Read, That the several States composing the United States, are not united on the principle of unlimited submission to their general government, but that by compact, under the style and title of a Constitution of the United States, and of amendments thereto, they constituted a General Government, for special purposes - delegated to that Government certain definite powers, reserving, each State to itself, the residuary mass of right to their self-government; and that whenever the General Government assumes undelegated power, it acts in an unauthorized, and, in all other cases, in an unconstitutional manner, and of no force; That to this compact each State acceeded as a State, and is an integral party, its States forming, as to itself, the other party, that the Government created by this compact was not made the exclusive or final judge of the extent of the powers delegated to itself, since that would have made its discretion, and not the Constitution, the sole source of its powers; but that, as in all other cases, it has no power, and no right, to COMMON JUDGE, EACH PARTY HAS AN EQUAL RIGHT TO JUDGE FOR ITSELF, AS WELL OF INFRAC-TION AS OF THE MODE AND MEASURE OF REDRESS.
-The First Kentucky Resolution of 1792.

BY TELEGRAPH.
Washington News and Gossip.
WASHINGTON, June 26. - The Surratt trial was on briefly to-day.
Col. Harvey W. Smith testified to his arresting Mrs. Surratt and Payne at Mrs.
Surratt's house.
Gen. Grant testified to an interview with Jacob Thompson at Millard's Bend, in 1863.
It had nothing to do with the case.
Charles Dawson, a clerk at the National Hotel in 1865, testified to finding among some of Booth's baggage, left there April 14, a card marked "J. Harrison Surratt." The card was produced, but not offered in evidence.

Colonel R. C. Morgan testified to the arrest of Mrs. Surratt and Payne on the night of the 17th of April. He was of the party with Colonel Smith, but the testimony of the two varied, and especially so in related to Payne. Smith said he met Payne at the door, and Morgan said he met him there.

Mrs. Benson, formerly Mrs. Hudspeith, testified relative to the letters found in a street car in New York. Mrs. Hudspeith said she came here from Canada under an agreement that her expenses would be paid and that she would receive per diem the sum of $20 while here.

The members of Congress who are now in the city are mainly the extreme Railroads. General Butler and others express themselves as in favor of a short July session, merely passing a declaratory reconstruction act, and not entering into any other business.

Hon. H. C. Peck, resident Minister of Hayti, died at Port-Au-Prince, of fever, June 9. He was formerly of Oberlin, Ohio.
The United States steamer Sacramento was totally wrecked off Coconada, Madras.
All hands saved.

Representative Boutwell is in favor of pushing the impeachment programme, and proposes the adoption of articles at this session and the trial of the President by an adjourned session in October. There is an active rivalry between this man and Ashley, of Ohio, which shall win the diploma of "Dan-plug."

A bill is being prepared for the organization of Congress, at its coming session, of a territorial government for our recently acquired Russian Territory. Two candidates for the position of Territorial Governor have already turned up here. There will be a nice bone to pick by obtaining that position. To get out there and in a short time return as Territorial delegate, with mileage in, will be a rich plum.

The Government Attorneys, in the Surratt case, gave out to-day, to the surprise of all that they would close their evidence on Tuesday. The large number visiting the case, and the fact that there was some disappointment in the inability of one witness, Mrs. Benson, late Hudspeith, to recognize Surratt as one of the parties who accidentally dropped a letter in her presence, in a New York street car, relating to the assassination.

The truth is, so far, the Government has been very weak in the character of its testimony, and it is known to thousands of people here, and yet there is not one of our populace who saw him, but mere sojourners and strangers, who never heard the name of Surratt until after the murder, now state they saw him muffled up and disguised at the theater, and in two years after the crime they are able to swear to him in open court as the man.

A World's Gathering of Priests.
(Per Cable.)
ROME, June 25. - There are already assembled in this city four hundred Archbishops and Bishops and some thousands of priests, who have gathered here for the purpose of the celebration of the eighteenth hundredth anniversary of St. Peter's martyrdom.
Crowds are coming from all parts of the world. The Bishops from the United States have already arrived, and are lodged in the different convents within the city.

BAD FEELING IN ITALY.
FLORENCE, June 25. - The feeling prevailing just now in Italy against the Catholic clergy is very bitter. On Monday at the festival of St. John, the Patron Saint of Florence, the people refused to join the ecclesiastical parade. In its observance, for the purpose of celebrating the anniversary of the national festival of free Italy, two weeks ago.

The Iowa Democracy Speaking.
DES MOINES, June 26. - The Democratic State Convention met to-day, and, in their resolutions, declare in one and the same of the States; assert that the existing territorial laws are unjust to the agricultural States; advocate the repeal of the Prohibitory Liquor Law; charge State officers and Congress with profligacy and knavery; express unqualified opposition to the Reconstruction Act, and denounce the denial of representation to Southern States.

Destructive Fires in the West.
CHICAGO, June 26. - The large woolen factory of Worley & Proctor, at Lewistown in this State, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday night. Loss, $75,000; insured for $24,000.

The St. Paul and Pacific Railroad machine shops and car-worshouses were destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $150,000; insurance about $30,000.

At Council Bluffs, Iowa, a fire occurred yesterday. Lint's warehouse, containing 80,000 bushels of grain, was destroyed. It extended to the Empire block, the best block in Council Bluffs. The entire block was soon in flames, and was speedily consumed.

The entire Noyesville newspaper establishment, occupying the third story, was totally destroyed. The entire loss on the building and goods is $300,000.
